From the Paris Gazette, dated Oct. 2.

Strasbourg, Sept. 22.

THE Enemy's Army which paſs'd the Rhine the 15th Inſtant at Philipsbourg, conſiſted then but of 14000 Men; but we are inform'd they have ſince been augmented to 18000, and have with them 10 Pieces of Cannon for Battery, 45 Field-Pieces, 4 Mortars, Ammunition in Proportion, and a great Number of Waggons and Pioneers. Theſe great Preparations, and their March towards Candel, gave Ground to believe they had a Deſign to attack the Lines of Weiſſenbourg, as was the Report in their Camp. They are now encamp'd at Hagenbach on the ſide of the Rhine, and Priſoners tell us they will attack Lutterbourg, which is but a League from them. The 20th the Marſhal de Villars went to view the Lines from the Rhine to the Mountains: He found them in very good Order, and they are made ſtronger continually by the Sluices which overflow the Ground before them with Water. And we have Intelligence, that General Thungen finding the Enterprize too difficult, has written his Opinion to the Emperor, and deſir'd his further Orders. Parties of the King's Troops often take Horſes and Priſoners from the Enemy. We have Advice, that the 11th of this Month a Party of 300 Men of Homburg, having paſs'd the Rhine above Mentz, plunder'd the Village of Stochſtat in the Country of Darmſtad, and carried off Lieutenant Colonel Spiegel's Horſes. 'Tis rumour'd the Enemy had form'd a Deſign to ſurprize Lutterbourg; that a German Officer had been ſeiz'd in that Town in Woman's Cloaths with another Man, and that they were both puniſh'd as Spies.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated Oct. 5.

From the Imperial Camp at Hagenbach, Oct. 1. The 25th of laſt Month a Party of Huſſars ſent in a French Lieutenant which they had taken near Strasbourg; and he was immediately exchang'd by General Thungen for a German Lieutenant that was in the Enemy's Hands. The ſame Day ſeveral Deſerters came over to us, and reported unanimouſly that the Enemy had poſted 15000 Men behind their Lines from Croon Weyſſembeurg to Lutterbourg; that they had given Order for felling Trees croſs the Roads between Lutterbourg and the Rhine; that they had poſted on the Bank of that River over againſt a certain Iſland 7 Battallions and 5 Regiments of Horſe, and a little higher a Regiment of Spaniſh Horſe with ſeveral Hundred Foot; that they have 5 Battallions in Fort-Louis; and that all theſe Troops have Order to obſerve carefully the Motions of our Army, and hold themſelves in a Readyneſs to joyn in a few Hours in Caſe they ſhould be attack'd in any of their Poſts. The 29th it was reported in our Camp that Intelligence was brought in, that the Marſhal de Villars was gone for Italy, and that he had left the Command of the Enemy's Army to the Marquis d' Uxeles.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated Octob 8.

Letters from Frankfort of the 3d of October adviſe, that the Prince of Baden left Mentz the Day before to return to Raſtad: That both Armies on the Upper Rhine continue in their former Poſts; that the Imperialiſts have receiv'd ſeveral heavy Cannon and Mortars from Philipsbourg; that General Thungen has caus'd ſeveral Avenues to his Camp to be ſtop'd by felling Trees in the Wood that lies before it, to prevent being ſurpriz'd by the Enemy: And that Commiſſaries were appointed on both Sides, to meet at Offenbourg the 3d of October, to treat of an Exchange of Priſoners.

From the Leiden Gazettes.

Paris, Octob. 1. The 26th of laſt Month M. de Bezons, Lieutenant General, having taken Leave of the King and receiv'd his Inſtructions, ſet out Poſt for Piemont, to ſerve under the Duke of Orleans in the Room of the Marſhal de Marſin: The King deſign'd to have ſent the Marſhal de Catinat, but he excus'd himſelf on account of his Age and Infirmities. The Muſcovite Ambaſſador who has been here ſome Time, having had an Audience of Leave of the King at Verſailles, is preparing to ſet out from hence on his Return to Holland, thence to go to Muſcovy: The Buſineſs he came hither to negociate is kept ſo ſecret, that there is no coming at the Knowledge of it yet. The 27th of laſt Month the [preterdoc] King and Queen of England with the Princeſs, made a Viſit to Madame and to the Dutcheſs of Orleans, to compliment them upon his Royal Highneſs's being wounded. The Elector of Cologne arriv'd here ſome Days ago, and has been admitted incognito to the King in his Cloſet; the 29th paſt he went to Meudon, where he was magnificently entertain'd by the Dauphin: 'Tis ſaid he will go from hence to Rome.

An Extract of a Letter from Paris dated October 4.

'NEver were juſter Meaſures taken for ſucceeding in a Siege, than were in that of Turin. 'There were in the Camp, before the Siege was 'form'd, ſuch Stores of Ammunition and Proviſions, 'that it was judg'd there would be no Occaſion to 'ſend any thing thither by Convoys for 3 Months, 'which was thought Time ſufficient for taking the 'Place. The Artillery was very numerous, the 'Number of Ingeniers and Miners was very great; 'and nothing was forgotten that could be neceſſary 'to ſecure the Succeſs of ſo great an Enterprize, 'for which the Troops began to march the 22d of 'April. It was impoſſible to make better Diſpoſitions, or do more than was done by the Beſiegers 'to carry the Place: But 'tis not to be wonder'd 'at, if during ſo long a Siege the greateſt Part of 'the Cannon were render'd unſerviceable by frequent quent Firing. As for the Ingeniers and Miners, the Duke of Savoy had caus'd so great a Number of Mines to be made, that 'tis not strange it took up a long Time to advance forward, and that almost all the Ingeniers who were at this Siege were lost, tho' their Number was very considerable. The pushing the Siege to an End depended wholly upon the supplying the Rooms of those Ingeniers; and that was a thing impossible for those who had the Conduct of the Siege and the Administration of the War. The long Siege of Verue; the Sieges of Brisac, Landau, the Castle of Nice, and Barcelona, had cost us most of our ablest Ingeniers. M. de Lapara was kill'd before Barcelona, and M. Filee and Charmont before the Castle of Nice: This Loss was so considerable, that when the Marshal de Vauban heard of it, he said, the Death of M. Filee was a great Blow, but that of M. Charmont irreparable. In all these Sieges an infinite Number of good Officers of Artillery were destroy'd; insomuch that in the Siege of Nice it was found necessary to make Use of those of the Marine. So that 'twas impossible to repair the Loss of the Officers of Artillery and Ingeniers that were kill'd before Turin. The ill Success therefore of this Siege cannot justly be charg'd upon any Person, being apparently owing to our Want of able Ingeniers, and especially of the 3 chief Ingeniers that I have mention'd, one of whom was design'd to have the Direction of the Siege of Turin; and perhaps he had not been kill'd before Barcelona, had he not expos'd himself too much, out of Impatience to be present at this Siege. The Duke of Orleans receiv'd two Wounds in the Fight before Turin, the 7th of last March; one in the Flesh a little above his Hip; the other in his Left Arm above the Wrist, which cut a Tendon and reach'd the Bone: He conceal'd at first the Wound in his Arm, and tied his Handkerchief upon it with his Teeth and Right-Hand; but the Loss of Blood was so great as made him ready to faint; which being perceiv'd by M. de Saint Leger, one of his Valets de Chambre, he recover'd him from swooning quite away by a seasonable Application of Hungary-Water, and carried him out of the Battle.

The most excellent Tablets of a delightful Flavour and Taste, one of which at a time being only chewed or held in the Mouth, rowling it about with the Tongue, wonderfully (without the least offence or hindrance of business) purges the Head and Brain, curing all the Diseases thereof, by evacuating the Rheum or Humours, by moderate Spitting, that cause them, when all inward Medicines, Blisters, Issues, Seatons, &c. are ineffectual. In Rheumatisms, Gouts, Kings-Evil, Leprosies, Red and Pimply Faces, Itchings, Scabs, &c. they are strangely effectual, sweetning the Blood, creating an Appetite, &c. One of them used as above-said for an hour or two, will discharge near a Pint of Rheum, which continued may save the trouble and serve for the same end and better than Salivation in many cases (they being without the least grain of Mercury) and by spitting out at any time the Tablet (which never sticks to the Mouth or Teeth) the Flux immediately ceases, being very harmless and as small (only flattish) as Peas, leaving the Mouth moist, cool and refresh'd. Are to be had only at Mr. Varenne's, a Bookseller, at Seneca's Head near Somerset-House in the Strand, at 3 s. 6 d. the Box, with Directions.

The Royal Chymical Wash-Ball for the Hands and Face, largely experienc'd and daily commended by all that use them, and that for making the Skin so delicately soft and smooth, as not to be parallell'd by either Wash, Powder, Cosmetick, &c. it being indeed a real Beautifier of the Skin, by taking off all Deformities, as Tetters, Ring-worms, Morphew, Sun-burn, Scurf, Pimples, Pits or Redness of the Small-pox, &c. keeping it of a lasting and extream Whiteness, it soon alters red or rough Hands; and is admirable in Shaving the Head, which not only gives a more exquisite sharpness to the Razor, but so comforts the Brain and Nerves, as to prevent catch-Cold; and is of a grateful and pleasant Scent, without the least Grain of Mercury. Is sold only by Mr. Allnutt, Glover, the corner of Popes-Head-Alley against the Royal Exchange, and at Mrs. Giles's, Milliner and Toyshop next Hercules-Pillar-Ally by the Temple, at 1 s. each, with printed Directions at large.
